To you, therefore, I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Representative in the next Territorial Legislature, subject to the decision of the Republican County Con-vention. In doing this, permit me to say that in the event of my nomination and election, Breckenridge County shall be represented without regard to person, point, or individual interests. Her railroad interests, so far as any action of the Territorial Legislature can be brought to bear, shall not be overlooked. Her agricultural and educational interests shall not be neglected. In a word, her general interests shall be jeal-Summons', Warrants, Recognizances, &c., for sale ously guarded, and the whole county, not any particular locality, shall be faithfully represented. With a reasonable share of favorable legislation Breckenridge will soon take a proud position among the first counties in Kansas. Let us see to it that she has this reasonable share of favorable legislation, and that nothing is done, through local jealousy and strife, to cramp her development and retard her prosperity. Having resided in the county from its earliest settlement, I think I understand somewhat its wants and necessities-and if you can, consistently with your views, east your votes for me, I assure you your confidence will not be misplaced. That no one may be deceived into my support, politically, I wish to say, further, that I have since the organization of the Republican party co-operated with it, believing it to be the party of our home, our interest, our section and our country with a platform broad enough, long enough, and strong enough to sustain any national man in the Union—and so long as it remains honest in its organization and true to its purposes, so long will I, in my humble great principles.
